

JOURNAL

OFFICE OF LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL

Tuesday - 6 February 1962

25X1 [redacted] Mr. Borel, OCR, called to say that Paul Blackburn, in the Legislative Reference Service of the Library of Congress, had been referred to [redacted] by the Pentagon on an inquiry he had made for information on the Agency role in [redacted]. Borel requested our guidance on his response to this. He plans to advise his contact Mr. Elsherry that this is the type of request, i.e., involving Agency organization and activities, on which we cannot provide information to Legislative Reference. I suggested that in addition he might mention to them the existence of the [redacted] but that he should not suggest that Legislative Reference have the Congressman who is interested in this information contact us directly.

25X1

25X1

STAT

25X1 [redacted] called to say
25X1 that [redacted] one of the individuals whom Sarah McClendon had questioned the President about in a recent news conference as being a security risk, has been investigated by several congressional committees.
25X1 [redacted] specifically mentioned the Senate Internal Security Subcommittee.
25X1 The purpose of [redacted] call was to alert us to the fact that [redacted] had at one time been an employee of the [redacted]

25X1

25X1

25X1

25X1 [redacted] Met with Frank Schroeder, Senate Internal Security Subcommittee staff, and requested the Subcommittee's permission for us to use a picture from their files [redacted]
[redacted] Schroeder gave me a letter, signed by Chairman Eastland, authorizing us to use the photograph in any way we deem proper.

25X1 [redacted] Talked with Carl Marcy referring back to Chairman Fulbright's letter of 28 December 1961 requesting the Director to appear before the full Committee in executive session. Marcy indicated Senator Fulbright was out of town until the 15th of January and in any event their schedule was still full. He will discuss this with Senator Fulbright later and advise us. No answer to the Chairman's letter is required. We will leave the matter with the Senate Foreign Relations Committee.